Dear Prospective Corporate Partner:

We are delighted to invite you to partner with Plano Area Alliance of Black School Educators, PAABSE.

We are a local affiliate of a state wide organization, TABSE, that represents over 6,000 professionals and students in education. We are a resource to facilitate greater participation of minorities in all facets of the educational community as it addresses the demands of a global economy and the ever changing face of education. From students and paraprofessionals to superintendents, TABSE members represent the driving force behind many educational policy changes and educational institutions.

Our mission is to address the professional needs of our members and to build leaders that shape the future of education with an unfaltering commitment to inspire the same in their successors. This mission is primarily achieved through providing our professional members opportunities to increase their professional practices. A strategic partnership with the Dallas/Fort Worth Area corporate community is vital to our continued growth and awarding of scholarships which are funded through corporate donations and chapter fundraising efforts. Through ongoing and new support, we are able to establish and maintain our community service activities, including, but not limited to, free professional learning opportunities, parental engagement events and our Scholarship Fund which assists minority youth entering higher education.

Your participation as a Corporate Partner will reap important benefits and valuable dividends now and, in the future, as you'll see in our prospectus below. Whether your goals are professional development, diversity recruitment and retention or community service; FABSE delivers. We look forward to your participation as a corporate partner.

I thank you for your time and consideration of this partnership opportunity.

Rise together,

Tiffany Alexander

TABSE OVERVIEW

TABSE

OVERVIEW

The name adopted for the organization was the Texas Alliance of Black School Educators (TABSE). TABSE received its charter on November 12, 1987 with thirteen educators serving as Charter Members and serving on the Board of Directors. The charter members are: Dr. Clarence Bibby, Austin; Dr. J. David Bowick, Houston; Mrs. Elma Jean Carr, Fort Worth; Mr. Edward Cline, Houston; Dr. Jay Cummings, Austin; Dr. Joseph Drayton, Houston; Mr. Dennis Dunkins, Fort Worth; Mrs. Donetta Goodfall, Austin; Mr. Roland Hayes, Austin; Dr. James Hill, Austin; Dr. Thomas Randle, Conroe; Dr. Alfred Roberts, Dallas; and Mr. Cameron Wells, Houston.

The Texas Alliance of Black School Educators affirms the inherent worth, dignity, and educability of African-American people. The Alliance challenges forces, which obstruct the achievement, development, and educational opportunities of youth and adults. African-American children throughout the United States encounter problems that are directly related to their minority group status. It is the mission of this Alliance to enhance and facilitate their education.

HISTORY

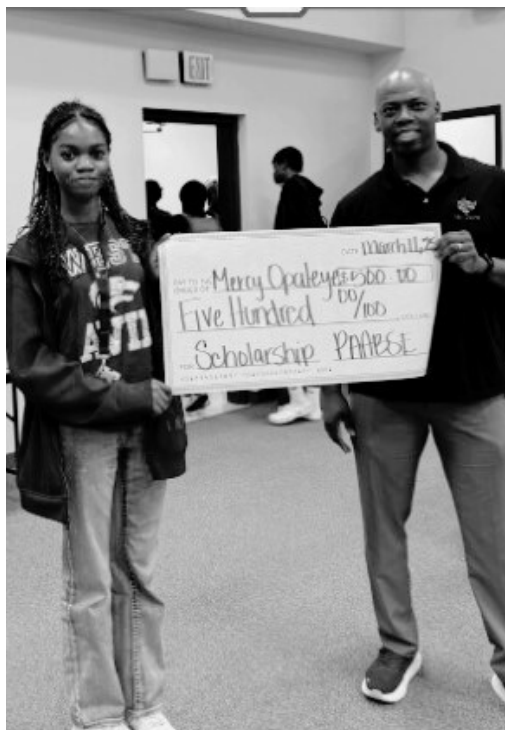

The first meeting of the Texas Alliance of Black School Educators (TABSE) was held December 5-6, 1986 in Austin, Texas. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss a coalition of African-American educators and other individuals interested in developing strategies to improve educational opportunities for African-American students and to eradicate problems faced by educators of African-American students.

The discussion centered on the formation of a statewide organization which would serve as the voice to speak out on educational issues affecting African-American children, to present to the legislature those issues affecting African-American children, and to present to the legislature those issues affecting educators of African-American students at the state level.

“If the goals of equity, adequacy, and quality education are to be achieved for African-American children, it is most important that we join together to provide them with an educational environment that strengthens and nurtures them for the world's society.”
